

JOY @ Edwards After-School Orchestra Teaching Artist (Upper Strings)

JOY Music, Newberg, Oregon

Hours (Part Time): 10 hrs/week, 4 days per week (after-school), for 34 weeks, including program and site meetings, and occasional evenings or weekends for performances.

Reports to: JOY Music Program Coordinator, JOY @ Edwards Site Director

Desired Start Date: November 1, 2022

Pay Rate: $40/hour

Organization Overview

JOY (the Junior Orchestra of Yamhill County) is a collaborative project of the Yamhill Enrichment Society (YES), a 501(3)c organization dedicated to transforming the lives of Yamhill County youth by providing access to music and literacy enrichment. JOY is an El Sistema member organization, which is aimed towards using music as a tool for social change.

The mission of JOY is to transform the lives of underserved youth in Yamhill County through high-caliber, intensive orchestral music instruction through emphasizing teamwork and collaboration, promoting student creativity, and engaging the community. The program currently consists of In-School programming for kindergarten and first grade students and After-School orchestras for grades 2-5 at Edwards Elementary. In Fall 2022, we expect to serve around 85 students after-school in Grades 2-5. JOY is also actively exploring future sites for growth.

Position Overview

The JOY @ Edwards Teaching Artist's primary responsibility will be to teach group lessons and lead and co-teach rehearsals. Collaborating with other members of the instructional team, the Teaching Artist will be directly involved in developing, implementing, and carrying out the curriculum and defined teaching objectives at the guidance of the Edwards Site Director. As a Teaching Artist (TA), the candidate must be able to demonstrate proficient performance technique, communication skills, and equitable classroom management strategies. Knowledge of orchestral instrumental performance and pedagogical practices and their implementation are a must.

As a Teaching Artist, the candidate would be working with students in grades 2-5 in both group rehearsals on basic string and orchestra technique and providing specialized feedback and assistance with students in both group rehearsal, sectionals, and the occasional one-on-one lesson. The ideal candidate would demonstrate proficiency in teaching and playing their primary instrument (violin or viola). Opportunities for professional development through El Sistema USA, OR-ASTA, and other state and national music education organizations are offered and encouraged as part of this role.

Schedule

This is a part-time position. JOY runs during the school year from September-June. The JOY @ Edwards After-School Orchestra runs on Tuesdays-Fridays from 2:20-5:00pm. JOY Teaching Artists also lead and plan the annual JOY Summer Day Camp for two weeks in August. As part of onboarding and prep, JOY Staff take part in training days before the start of the academic year in August. Additional hours could be available or added based on program needs. Examples include staff and student recruiting, concerts, public performances, fundraisers, and special events.
